DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of claims 8-14 in the reply filed on 12/15/06 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by USP 6,290,302 ('302).

Figures 10-13 illustrate the step of inserting non-tapered portions of bristles into through holes of a head insert (10). Figures 23 and 24 show the step of thermally fusing the ends of the bristles protruding from the bottom of the head (10). Figure 27 show the head (10) with bristles being fixed to the head of the toothbrush (5). The reference discloses that the head insert can be attached to the head of the toothbrush using ultrasonic welding (col. 2, lines 45-52).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over USP 6,290,302 ('302) in view of USP 5,176,427 ('427).

The '302 patent fails to disclose steps of cutting and grinding the tips of the bristles. The '427 patent discloses a process for manufacturing a bristle head comprising the steps of cutting the tips of the bristles (col. 6, lines 61-63) and grinding those tips (col. 7, lines 20-24). Also see figure 4d.

Art Unit: 1744

Accordingly, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to cut and grind the tips of the bristles in the '302 patent in view of the known practice as disclosed in the '427 patent.

Claims 12-14 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over USP 6,290,302 ('302) and USP 5,176,427 ('427) as applied to claim 8 above, and further in view of USP 6,764,142 (Kwon).

The '302 and '427 patents do not disclose the bristle diameters claimed. The Kwon patent disclose a method of forming toothbrush bristles having a diameter of 0.02 (figure 5) and 0.06 mm (figure 6). Accordingly, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to employ the bristles disclosed in Kwon (or step of fabricating the bristles as disclosed in Kwon) into the method disclosed in the '302 patent in view of the known advantages disclosed in Kwon.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The remaining US patents are considered to be generally related to the claimed invention.
